HOW TO GET TO WEMBLEY

Wembley is a public transport destination. The Stadium opens two hours before kick-off and we would recommend all fans leave plenty of time to arrive as it will be busy around the venue.

TRAIN

Wembley Park Station

Wembley Park Underground station is served by both the Metropolitan and Jubilee lines. On arrival at Wembley Park, stairs from the ticketing hall will guide you down onto Olympic Way from where the Stadium will be clearly visible. A 10 minute walk will bring you to the front of the Stadium.

Wembley Central Station

This station has both Underground and Overground services. It is served by the Bakerloo Underground line, London Overground and National Rail services, and connects to stations including Euston, Watford Junction and Willesden Junction.

Wembley Stadium Station

Wembley Stadium station is on the Chiltern train line. This line services the Midlands, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire. London trains on this line depart from Marylebone station. On arrival at the station the Stadium will be clearly visible. Lifts or stairs will take you from the platforms up onto street level.

For further information visit tottenhamhotspur.com/ispurs

PUBLIC BUS

Local buses to the Stadium include 18, 83, 92 and 224.

For London tube, road, bus and other services, visit tfl.org.uk. Find train times and fares at nationalrail.co.uk or call 0871 200 4950.
